

京都大学
KYOTO UNIVERSITY

The 4th Joint Workshop
between Kyoto University and Victoria University of Wellington
(KU – VUW Joint Workshop 2023)

29 – 30 June, 2023

Research Commons, Katsura Library, Kyoto University, Kyoto, Japan

Second Announcement

We are happy to announce further details for the KU – VUW Joint Workshop 2023, which is the fourth in the series of workshops between our two universities. The objective of the workshop is to foster research collaborations and knowledge exchange.

Venue:

Research Commons, Katsura Library, Kyoto University, Kyoto, Japan
https://www.t.kyoto-u.ac.jp/lib/en/katsura_library

Dates:

29 June (Thursday) and 30 June (Friday), 2023

Topics:

Topics may include, but are not limited to, superconductivity; spintronics; applications and physics of electrical and electronic materials; materials for carbon neutrality; and quantum technology.

Confirmed invited speakers:

From Victoria University of Wellington: Nick Long, Rod Badcock, Nick Strickland, Zhenan Jiang, James Storey, Simon Granville, Kai Chen, Yueming Sun, James Rice, Ulrich Zuelicke

From Kyoto University: Kenji Ishida, Yoichi Yanase, Masashi Shiraishi, Shigeki Takeuchi, Shingo Yonezawa, Itsuhiro Kakeya, Naoyuki Amemiya, Yusuke Sogabe, Yuichi Shimakawa, Teruo Ono, Hyungdo Kim

Registration:

Registration can be made through the following Google form.

<https://forms.gle/tS6vrW35U11n7cS16>

Invited speakers need not register through this form.

Lead organisers:

Naoyuki Amemiya, Kyoto University

Yusuke Sogabe, Kyoto University

Nick Long, Robinson Research Institute, Victoria University of Wellington

Zhenan Jiang, Robinson Research Institute, Victoria University of Wellington

Contact: KU-VUW-WS@asl.kuee.kyoto-u.ac.jp (forwarding to organisers)